“ Big Cheese,

You aged like fine wine, and your temperance cooled with it. Although, you always had a sense of humour. You will be missed.

I'll never see another package wrapped in more tape or stickers than an envelope could possibly or practically hold.

You cared for your own ailing father Cal for a long while. You would bring my brother Blake and I to see him often. I am happy that my father was able to do the same for you, to be there for you, and that your health did not falter for as long as Cal's.

You were a product of your time, and as such an upstanding man. Rest in peace.

With love,
*Monty W. Benton III

“ Monty,

I will miss you, our phone conversations, our trips to our favorite fried pie place (use to be between Alvarado & Grandview & it is now in Itasca. We became good friends the last 20 years, you, me & my husband is going Gerald. We shared Thanksgiving with you and Britt many times. And we have watched the Cowboys win & lose. You visited me in the hospital when my hip was replaced, when I had my heart attack & in December when I had a G I Bleed. You were there when Gerald had his Bypass Surgery & when he had his Prostate Cancer Surgery, and Gerald & I have been there for you when you were l'll. You & I spent 5 days together in Norman, Oklahoma when our son Britt was on Life Support, it was agonizing to see our son dying. We have weathered a lot together, but when I see you again you will be well, until then Rest In Peace.

“ I so enjoyed spending time with you this last several months. Even though you did not know what day it was or what you had for breakfast. I sat in awe of you as you recalled things from 40 years ago. You still remember people names addresses of places you lived. You talked me in to climbing in that doggie door because you were locked out. Then a few days later you did it again. I smile when I think of you and I taking your Mom's dog "Honey" to have her picture taken for a Christmas present, when we brought her back your Mom was very anxious for her return. When I brought you to my house several weeks ago we spent the afternoon looking and laughing at some of our old pictures.It is an afternoon I will always treasure. I know you are better now but when you left this earth you took a piece of my heart with you.

“ When I first met Monty he was very quiet. After several visits he warmed up to me. I think he realized I was going to be in his life for a long time. Through the last several years he loved to push my buttons. He would say “are you bringing me biscuit this morning”? After I responded He would comeback with “that’s why there is an “F” on your drivers license. A woman’s place is in the kitchen”. He didn’t know my dad used to pick on me like that so I was always prepared with a comeback. That could go on for a several minutes with everyone talking and laughing. .

Monty and I spent a lot of time with his dad. We would pick him up and go out to eat or to the movies. We celebrated many Holidays at his home with Monty’s family and my sons family. He particularly liked Kayna,, my sons German Shepherd. When I would let him know they were in town and coming to visit he always said “don’t forget Kaynas ball”. He enjoyed throwing it in the backyard and having her bring it back to him. We shared many memories together over the last 5 years. I will truly miss seeing him. I Love you Monty and I’m so glad you were in my life.

“ Dad, I already miss you calling me four or five times a day wondering where I was or what time you thought I would be home, coming back, what I was doing, where I was, etc.

With your failing memory getting a bit worse lately more than once I would answer phone with a a silent "gosh, what now attitude". And now if I had a one wish I would have you back in our lives and make sure I told you to call me once an hour if you wanted to.

You and I never really said "I love you" a lot to one one another, but I had began to more often as Joyce noticed and I am glad I did. Because I will always. I love you Dad and I miss you so much already.

But my heart gets peace as I know your in Heaven with loved ones and I know one day in the future we will get to smile when we see each other again and embrace eternity with friends and family.
